

SYMBOL STUDY

Start off by reading the passage aloud together

Is there anything hard to understand about this passage? Do you have any questions about the passage? Write or draw a question mark beside anything you'd like to ask about.

What "shines" to you in the passage? Did you have a "light bulb moment"? Draw a light bulb beside something that makes you think

What does the passage tell us about God? Draw an arrow pointing up beside the things that tell us about God's nature.

Is there anything in the passage that tells us about human nature? Draw a downwards arrow beside it.

What does this mean for you? What is hitting your heart? Draw a sideways arrow for the things that you can apply to your life.

What really excites you about this passage? Draw an exclamation mark beside it.